

ASK: Asking Saves Kids

Now that summer is well underway and kids are playing at their friends' homes more frequently, it's more important than ever for parents and other caregivers to find out if there are guns in homes where their children play, and if there are, whether they are safely stored. The ASK program was developed by Brady United Against Gun Violence in collaboration with the American Academy of Pediatrics. For more ASK information and resources:

Agree To Agree | Youth Gun Injuries Prevention | Agree to Agree